

Test Content Outline

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the Certification Council for Professional Dog Trainers Board of Directors reviews the test content outlines to ensure they are up to date and reflect current practice in the profession.

Policy

No less than annually the Certification Council for Professional Dog Trainers (CCPDT) Board of Directors shall review the test content outline for each of its examinations, including the weightings of the domains and subheadings, to ensure it is in keeping with current practice, knowledge, and methods in the profession. The initial review of the outlines may be delegated to one or more Examination Committees for review and recommendation, but the Board of Directors shall issue the final approval of any test content outline.

All test content outlines, including the weighting of the major domains, shall be printed in the respective Handbook for Candidates. Future forms of the examinations will be based on the most current approved version of the outlines.
